Introduction

The Political Reform Act¹ (the “Act”) imposes limits on gifts, prohibits honoraria payments², and imposes limits and other restrictions on the receipt of travel payments and personal loans by the following state officials:

- Elected state officers, candidates for elective state office, and other state officials specified in Government Code Section 87200³
- Members of state boards and commissions
- Designated employees of state agencies (i.e., officials and employees of state agencies who file statements of economic interests (Form 700) under their agency’s conflict-of-interest code)

This fact sheet summarizes the major provisions of the Act concerning gifts, honoraria, travel and loans. You should not, however, rely on the fact sheet alone to ensure compliance with the Act. If you have any questions, contact the Fair Political Practices Commission at (866) ASK-FPPC or visit our website at www.fppc.ca.gov. Commission advice letters are available on our website.

Ethics Training

Most state agency officials are required to complete an ethics training course. Contact your agency for course information. Also see the FPPC website for a link to state agency ethics training.

Enforcement

Failure to report gifts, honoraria, loans, and travel payments may result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 per violation. (Section 83116.)

¹ Government Code Sections 81000-91014. Commission regulations appear at 2 California Code of Regulations Section 18000, et seq.

² The gift limit and honoraria prohibition do not apply to judges (although they do apply to candidates for judicial office) or to any part-time member of the governing board of any public institution of higher education, unless the member is also an elected official. (Sections 89502 and 89503.)

³ State officials specified in Section 87200 include elected state officers, candidates for elective state office, members of the Public Utilities Commission, Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, Fair Political Practices Commission, and California Coastal Commission, and officials who manage public investments.

Gifts

Limitations

Elected state officers, candidates for elective state office, and other state agency officials and employees are subject to two gift limits:

1. Elected state officers, candidates for elective state office, and designated employees of the legislature may not accept gifts aggregating more than $10 in a calendar month from any single lobbyist or lobbying firm. State agency officials, including board and commission members, officials who manage public investments, and employees, may not accept gifts aggregating more than $10 in a calendar month from a single lobbyist or lobbying firm if the lobbyist or firm is registered to lobby the official or employee's agency. (Sections 86201-86204.)

2. Gifts from any other single source may not exceed $420 in a calendar year. For officials and employees who file statements of economic interests (Form 700) under a state agency's conflict-of-interest code ("designated employees"), this limit applies only if the official or employee would be required to report income or gifts from that source on the Form 700, as outlined in the "disclosure category" portion of the agency's conflict-of-interest code. (Section 89503.)⁴

What is a "Gift"?

A "gift" is any payment or other benefit provided to you that confers a personal benefit for which you do not provide goods or services of equal or greater value. A gift includes a rebate or discount in the price of anything of value unless the rebate or discount is made in the regular course of business to members of the public. (Section 82028.) (See FPPC Regulation 18946 for valuation guidelines.)

Except as discussed below, you have "received" or "accepted" a gift when you know you have actual possession of the gift or when you take any action exercising direction or control over the gift, including discarding the gift or turning it over to another person. (Regulation 18941.)

Gifts to Family Members

Regulation 18944 was amended effective February 10, 2010. Pursuant to the regulation, a gift made to both an official and his or her family member (spouse, dependent minor children, and children up to age 23 who are students and not living on their own or providing a majority of their own support) is treated as a gift to the official for the full value of the gift. In addition, unless the official can establish that there is an established working or social relationship between the donor and the family member that is independent of the relationship between the donor and the official, a gift given solely to an official's family member will be treated as a gift to the official if the official receives a personal benefit from the gift. An official receives a personal benefit if: (1) the gift reduces a financial obligation the official would typically have in providing for the ordinary ⁴ Section 89503 provides for a biennial adjustment to the gift limit to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index. For 2011-2012, the gift limit is $420. (Section 89503; Regulation 18940.2.) Gifts from a single source that aggregate $50 or more must be disclosed, and gifts aggregating $420 or more received by an official may subject the official to disqualification with respect to the source (Section 87103(e).) Designated employees should obtain a copy of their conflict-of-interest code from their agency. Some conflict-of-interest codes require very limited disclosure of income and gifts. If your agency's conflict-of-interest code requires you to disclose income and gifts only from specified sources, gifts from sources that are not required to be disclosed are not subject to the $420 gift limit.

Gifts

care and support of his or her family member; (2) the official uses the gift, other than minimal use; or (3) the official exercises discretion and control over who will use the gift.

For officials subject to the filing requirements under Section 87200, a gift given to a family member is presumed to confer a personal benefit on a state official if it is made by a lobbyist, lobbying firm, or lobbyist employer, or on a local official if it is made by a person directly involved in a governmental decision in which the official will foreseeably participate or has participated in within the last 12 months.

Source of a Gift – Payment by a Third Party

Regulation 18945 was amended effective June 10, 2010, to clarify under what circumstances a person is the source of a gift when the gift is made to an official by an intermediary.

Generally, a person who makes a payment is the source of a gift made through an intermediary if the person directs that the payment be made to the official, agrees or acknowledges that the payment be made to the official, identifies the official as the person to whom the payment is to be made, or knows or has reason to know that the payment will be used to make a gift to the official.

Exceptions

The Act and Commission regulations provide exceptions for certain types of gifts. (Section 82028; Regulations 18940-18946.5.)

The following are not subject to any gift limit and are not required to be disclosed on a Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700):

1. Gifts which you return (unused) to the donor, or for which you reimburse the donor, within 30 days of receipt. (Section 82028(b)(2); Regulation 18943.)

2. Gifts which you donate (unused) to a non-profit, tax-exempt (501(c)(3)) organization or a government agency within 30 days of receipt without claiming a deduction for tax purposes. (Section 82028(b)(2); Regulation 18943.)

3. Gifts from your spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, or first cousin or the spouse of any such person, unless he or she is acting as an agent or intermediary for another person who is the true source of the gift. (Section 82028(b)(3); Regulation 18942(a)(3).)

4. Gifts of hospitality, including food, drink or occasional lodging which you receive in an individual's home when the individual is present. This exception does not apply if any of the following occur:

- Any part of the cost of the hospitality is paid directly or reimbursed by another person.
- Any person deducts any part of the cost of such hospitality as a business expense on any government tax return.
- There is an understanding between the individual extending the hospitality and another person that any amount of compensation the individual receives from that person includes a portion to be utilized to provide gifts of hospitality in the individual's home.

The cost of providing hospitality does not include any part of the value or rental cost of the home nor does it include any depreciation value on the home where the hospitality is extended.

An official may presume that the cost of home hospitality is paid by the host unless the host discloses to the official, or it is clear from the surrounding circumstances at the time the hospitality is provided, that a person, other than the host, paid the cost of the hospitality. (Regulation 18942(a)(7).)

Gifts

5. Gifts approximately equal in value exchanged between you and another individual (other than a lobbyist) on holidays, birthdays, or similar occasions to the extent that the gifts exchanged are not substantially disproportionate in value.

“Gifts exchanged” includes food, beverages, entertainment, and nominal benefits provided at the occasion by the honoree or another individual, other than a lobbyist, hosting the event. (Regulation 18942(a)(8).)

6. Informational material provided to assist you in the performance of your official duties, including books, reports, pamphlets, calendars, periodicals, videotapes, or free or discounted admission to informational conferences or seminars.

“Informational material” may also include scale models, pictorial representations, maps, and other such items, provided that if the item’s fair market value is more than $420, you have the burden of demonstrating that the item is informational. In addition, on-site demonstrations, tours, or inspections designed specifically for public officials for the purpose of assisting them in the performance of their official duties, are considered informational material, but this exception does not apply to meals or to transportation to the site unless the transportation is not commercially available. (Section 82028(b)(1); Regulations 18942(a)(1) and 18942.1.)

7. A devise or inheritance. (Section 82028(b)(5); Regulation 18942(a)(5).)

8. Campaign contributions, including rebates or discounts received in connection with campaign activities. (Section 82028(b)(4); Regulation 18942(a)(4).) However, campaign contributions must be reported in accordance with the campaign disclosure provisions of the Act and may be subject to the contribution limitations imposed by the Act.

9. Personalized plaques and trophies with an individual value of less than $250. (Section 82028(b)(6); Regulation 18942(a)(6).)

10. A single ticket or other admission privilege, for your own use, to attend a fundraiser for a campaign committee or candidate, or to a fundraiser for an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The ticket may only be received from the organization or committee holding the fundraiser. The nondeductible cumulative value of tickets to 501(c)(3) fundraiser events may not exceed the gift limit. (Regulation 18946.4.)

11. Passes or tickets that provide admission or access to facilities, goods, services, or other benefits (either on a one-time or repeated basis) that you do not use and do not give to another person. (Regulation 18946.1.)

12. Passes or tickets to entertainment, amusement, or recreational events provided to an official by the official’s agency are either income or, if provided to the agency by an outside source, gifts from that source unless the official attends at the discretion of the agency so as to perform a public purpose of that agency and complies with the public posting provisions under the Form 802. (Regulation 18944.1)

13. Generally, payments made by a third party to co-sponsor an event, or that is principally legislative, governmental or charitable in nature. (See Page 5.) (Section 82015(b)(2)(B)(iii).)

14. Leave credits (e.g., sick leave or vacation credits) received under a bona fide catastrophic or emergency leave program established by your employer and available to all employees in the same job classification or position. Donations of cash are gifts and are subject to limits and disclosure. (Regulation 18942(a)(9).)

15. Food, shelter, or similar assistance received in connection with a disaster relief program. The benefits must be received from a governmental agency or a 501(c)(3) charity and must be available to the general public. (Regulation 18942(a)(10).)

16. Items awarded in an employee raffle, received by the agency from an agency employee who is not acting as an intermediary for another donor. This exception applies when an agency holds an employee raffle and the item awarded in the raffle has been obtained with agency funds, or is otherwise an asset of the agency and not donated to the agency by a non-agency source. This exception does not apply to passes or tickets of the type described in Regulation 18944.1. (Regulation 18944.4.(a) and (b).)

17. Items received by an employee during an employee gift exchange, so long as the item received is provided by another employee of the agency and the gifts are not substantially disproportionate in value. (Regulation 18944.4(c).)

18. Free admission to an event that the official attends for purposes of performing a ceremonial role or duty so long as the agency identifies the event on Form 802. (Regulation 18942(a)(13).)

Gifts Reported by the Official's Agency

The following exceptions are also applicable to gifts, but the official's agency may be required to report these items on a Form 801 or Form 802 instead of the official reporting the items on a Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700).

Form 801: For an item to be considered a gift to the official's agency instead of a gift to the official, the payment (or item) must provide a personal benefit to a public official, such as a travel payment; and, in order for an agency to convert the payment into an agency gift, the payment may only be used for official agency business and the agency must control the payment. If the payment meets these requirements, the agency must report it on a Form 801 and the item is not reported on the individual's Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700). (Regulation 18944.2.)

Form 802: When an official's agency provides an entertainment or sporting ticket or pass to a public official in order for it not to be reported on the individual's Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700), the agency must have a written policy stating the public purpose for distribution of the tickets prominently posted on the agency website. The ticket or pass cannot be earmarked by the original source for use by a particular agency official, the agency must determine, in its sole discretion, which official may use the ticket or pass. The official's name will be identified on the agency's website on the Form 802 along with the source of the ticket. (Regulation 18944.1.)

Behested Payments

The following payments are not considered gifts, but a state elected official may be required to report these items on a Form 803.

Form 803: Behested payments are payments made principally for legislative, governmental, or charitable purposes. These payments are not for personal or campaign purposes. For example, an elected official may ask a third party to contribute funds to a school in his or her district, or to a job fair or health fair. Generally, a donation will be made "at the behest" if it is requested, solicited, or suggested by the elected officer, or otherwise made to a person in cooperation, consultation, coordination with, or at the consent of, the elected officer. This includes payments behested on behalf of the official by his or her agent or employee.

Gifts

Behested payments totaling $5,000 or more from a single source in a calendar year must be disclosed by the official on a Form 803, which is filed with the official's agency within 30 days of the date of the payment(s). (Section 82015.)

Reportable Gifts Not Subject to Limits

The following exceptions are also applicable to gifts, but you may be required to report these items on a Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700) and they can subject you to disqualification: ⁵

1. Certain payments for transportation, lodging, and subsistence. Refer to Page 9 for travel payment rules.
2. Wedding gifts are not subject to the $420 gift limit, but they are subject to the $10 lobbyist/lobbying firm gift limit. In addition, wedding gifts are reportable. However, for purposes of valuing wedding gifts, one-half of the value of each gift is attributable to each spouse, unless the gift is intended exclusively for the use and enjoyment of one spouse, in which case the entire value of the gift is attributable to that individual. (Regulation 18946.3.)
3. A prize or award received in a bona fide competition not related to your official status is not subject to the gift limit, but must be reported as income. Therefore, it is reportable if the value of the prize or award is $500 or more. (Section 87207; Regulation 18946.5.)

⁵ Designated employees should consult the "disclosure category" portion of their agency's conflict-of-interest code to determine if a particular source of income or gifts must be disclosed.

Honoraria

The Prohibition

State officials specified in Government Code Section 87200 (see Page 1) are prohibited from receiving honoraria payments. Officials and employees of state agencies who file Statements of Economic Interests (Form 700) under the agency's conflict-of-interest code ("designated employees") may not receive honoraria payments from any source if the employee would be required to report income or gifts from that source on the Form 700, as outlined in the "disclosure category" portion of the conflict-of-interest code. (Section 89502.)

What is an "Honorarium"?

An "honorarium" is any payment made in consideration for any speech given, article published, or attendance at any public or private conference, convention, meeting, social event, meal, or like gathering. (Section 89501.)

A "speech given" means a public address, oration, or other form of oral presentation, including participation in a panel, seminar, or debate. (Regulation 18931.1.)

An "article published" means a nonfictional written work: 1) that is produced in connection with any activity other than the practice of a bona fide business, trade, or profession; and 2) that is published in a periodical, journal, newspaper, newsletter, magazine, pamphlet, or similar publication. (Regulation 18931.2.)

"Attendance" means being present during, making an appearance at, or serving as host or master of ceremonies for, any public or private conference, convention, meeting, social event, meal, or like gathering. (Regulation 18931.3.)

Exceptions

The Act and Commission regulations provide certain exceptions to the prohibition on honoraria. (Section 89501; Regulations 18930-18933.) The payments described below are not prohibited and are not required to be disclosed on a Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700):

1. An honorarium that you return (unused) to the donor or the donor's agent or intermediary within 30 days. (Section 89501(b); Regulation 18933.)

2. An honorarium that is delivered to the State Controller within 30 days for donation to the General Fund for which you do not claim a deduction for income tax purposes. (Section 89501(b); Regulation 18933.)

3. A payment that is not delivered to you but is made directly to a bona fide charitable, educational, civic, religious, or similar tax-exempt, non-profit organization. However:

- You may not make the donation a condition for your speech, article, or attendance;
- You may not claim the donation as a deduction for income tax purposes;
- You may not be identified to the non-profit organization in connection with the donation; and
- The donation may have no reasonably foreseeable financial effect on you or on any member of your immediate family. (Regulation 18932.5.)

4. A payment received from your spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, or first cousin, or the spouse of any such person. However, a payment that would be considered an honorarium is prohibited if one of these persons is acting as an agent or intermediary for someone else. (Regulation 18932.4(b).)

5. Items 6, 8, and 9 under "Exceptions to the Definition of 'Gift'," discussed earlier in this fact sheet. (Regulation 18932.4.)

Exceptions That May Be Reportable As Income or Gifts

The following payments are not considered “honoraria” but may be reportable and can subject you to disqualification:⁶

1. Payments received for a comedic, dramatic, musical, or other similar artistic performance, and payments received for the publication of books, plays, or screenplays. (Regulation 18931.1-18931.2.) However, such payments are reportable income.

2. Income earned for your personal services if the services are provided in connection with a bona fide business, trade, or profession — such as teaching, practicing law, medicine, insurance, real estate, banking, or building contracting — and the services are customarily provided in connection with the business, trade, or profession.

This exception does not apply if the sole or predominant activity of the business, trade, or profession is making speeches. In addition, you must meet certain criteria to establish that you are conducting or in a bona fide business, trade, or profession (such as maintenance of business records, licensure, proof of teaching position) before a payment received for personal services which may meet the definition of honorarium would be considered earned income and not an honorarium. (Section 89501(b); Regulations 18932-18932.3.) Earned income is required to be reported. Contact the FPPC for detailed information.

3. Certain payments for transportation, lodging, and subsistence are not considered honoraria but may be reportable and subject to the gift limit. (Sections 89501(c) and 89506.) Travel payments are discussed in the next section.

⁶ Designated employees should consult the “disclosure category” portion of their agency’s conflict-of-interest code to determine if a particular source of income or gifts must be disclosed.

Travel Payments

The Act and Commission regulations provide exceptions to the gift limit and honoraria prohibition for certain types of travel payments. (Section 89506; Regulations 18950-18950.4.)

The term “travel payment” includes payments, advances, or reimbursements for travel, including actual transportation, parking and related lodging and subsistence. See Regulation 18946.6 for valuing air transportation. (Section 89506(a).)

Exceptions

The following types of travel payments are not prohibited or subject to any limit and are not reportable on a Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700):

1. Free admission to an event at which you make a speech, participate on a panel, or make a substantive formal presentation, transportation, and necessary lodging, food, or beverages⁷, and nominal non-cash benefits provided to you in connection with the event so long as:

- a. The speech is for official agency business and the official is representing his or her government agency in the course and scope of his or her official duties; and
- b. The payment is a lawful expenditure made only by a federal, state, or local government agency for purposes related to conducting that agency’s official business.

The exception does not apply to state or local elected officers and officials specified in Section

87200. (Regulation 18950.3(b), effective March 13, 2010.)

2. Travel payments provided to you by the State of California or by any state, local, or federal government agency which would be considered income and not a gift (i.e., payments for which you provide equal or greater consideration). (Section 89506(d)(2); Regulation 18950.1(d).)

3. Reimbursements for travel expenses provided to you by a bona fide non-profit, tax-exempt (501(c)(3)) entity for which you provide equal or greater consideration. (Section 82030(b)(2).)

4. Travel payments provided to you directly in connection with campaign activities. However, these payments must be reported in accordance with the campaign disclosure provisions of the Act. (Regulations 18950.1(c); 18950.4.)

5. Any payment for travel that is excluded from the definition of “gift” as discussed earlier in this fact sheet.

Reportable Payments Not Subject to Limit

The following travel payments are not prohibited or subject to the $420 gift limit, but may be reportable on a Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700).⁸

If the travel payment would otherwise be considered a gift under the Act (i.e., you did not provide equal or greater consideration for the ⁷ Lodging, food, or beverages are “necessary” only when provided on the day immediately preceding, the day(s) of, and the day immediately following the speech, panel, seminar, or similar service.

⁸ Designated employees should consult the “disclosure category” portion of their agency’s conflict-of-interest code to determine if a particular source of income or gifts must be disclosed.

⁹ Under Article IV, Section 4(a), and Article V, Section 14(a), of the California Constitution, elected state officers are prohibited from receiving salary, wages, commissions or other earned income from a lobbyist, lobbying firm or person who, during the previous 12 months, has been under a contract with the Legislature.

Travel Payments

payment), the payment would be subject to the $10 lobbyist/ lobbying firm gift limit.⁹

1. Travel that is reasonably necessary in connection with a bona fide business, trade, or profession, and which satisfies the criteria for federal income tax deductions for business expenses specified in Sections 162 and 274 of the Internal Revenue Code unless the sole or predominant activity of the business, trade, or profession is making speeches. (Section 89506(d) (3); Regulation 18950.1(e).) For reporting purposes, these travel payments would be considered part of the salary, wages, and other income received from the business entity and would be reported on Schedule A-2 or C of Form 700.

2. Travel within the United States that is reasonably related to a legislative or governmental purpose — or to an issue of state, national, or international public policy — in connection with an event at which you give a speech, participate in a panel or seminar or provide a similar service. Lodging and subsistence expenses in this case are limited to the day immediately preceding, the day of, and the day immediately following the speech, panel, or other similar service. (Section 89506(a)(1); Regulation 18950.1(a)(2).)

Note that this exception is different than travel payments described earlier. Under the circumstances described in this paragraph, transportation within the United States is not subject to the $420 gift limit, but is reportable and can subject a public official to disqualification. Payments are also subject to the lobbyist $10 gift limit.

As discussed earlier, most state employees and most individuals serving on state boards are not required to report travel payments paid by a governmental agency in the course of employment. (Regulation 18950.3, March 13, 2010.)

3. Travel not in connection with giving a speech, participating in a panel or seminar, or providing a similar service, but which is reasonably related to a legislative or governmental purpose, or to an issue of state, national, or international public policy, and which is provided by:

- A government, governmental agency, foreign government, or government authority;
- A bona fide public or private educational institution defined in Section 203 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code;
- A non-profit organization that is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or
- A foreign organization that substantially satisfies the requirements for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(Section 89506(a)(2); Regulation 18950.1(b).)

Loans

Personal loans received by certain state officials are subject to limits and other restrictions, and in some circumstances, a personal loan that is not being repaid or is being repaid below certain amounts may become a gift to the official who received it.

Limitations on Loans from Agency Officials, Consultants, and Contractors

If you are an official specified in Section 87200 (see Page 1) or you are exempt from the state civil service system pursuant to subdivisions (c), (d), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 4 of Article VII of the Constitution, you may not receive a personal loan that exceeds $250 at any given time from an officer, employee, member, or consultant of your government agency or an agency over which your agency exercises direction and control. (Section 87460(a) and (b).)

In addition, you may not receive a personal loan that exceeds $250 at any given time from any individual or entity that has a contract with your government agency or an agency over which your agency exercises direction and control. This limitation does not apply to loans received from banks or other financial institutions, and retail or credit card transactions, made in the normal course of business on terms available to members of the public without regard to your official status. (Section 87460(c) and (d).)

Loan Terms Applicable Only to Elected Officials

In addition to the limitations above, if you are an elected official, you may not receive a personal loan of $500 or more unless the loan is made in writing and clearly states the terms of the loan. The loan document must include the names of the parties to the loan agreement, as well as the date, amount, interest rate, and term of the loan. The loan document must also include the date or dates when payments are due and the amount of the payments. (Section 87461.)

The following loans are not subject to these limits and documentation requirements:

1. Loans received by an elected officer's or candidate's campaign committee.
2. Loans received from your spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, or first cousin, or the spouse of any such person unless he or she is acting as an agent or intermediary for another person not covered by this exemption.
3. Loans made, or offered in writing, prior to January 1, 1998. (Sections 87460 and 87461.)
4. An interest free loan made available by a depository institution to all state employees, including members or employees of the Legislature, who are customers with direct deposit at the institution, for the purpose of covering the amount of salary or wages earned by the employee but unpaid due to the delay of passage of the state budget. (In re Russel (1975) 1 FPPC Ops. 191, Section 82030(b).)

Loans as Gifts

Under the following circumstances, a personal loan received by any public official (elected and other officials specified in Section 87200, as well as any other state official or employee required to file Statements of Economic Interests) may become a gift and subject to gift reporting and limitations:

1. If the loan has a defined date or dates for repayment and has not been repaid, the loan will become a gift when the statute of limitations for filing an action for default has expired.
2. If the loan has no defined date or dates for repayment, the loan will become a gift if it remains unpaid when one year has elapsed from the later of:

Loans

- The date the loan was made;
- The date the last payment of $100 or more was made on the loan; or
- The date upon which you have made payments aggregating to less than $250 during the previous 12 months. (Section 87462.)

This section shall not apply to the following types of loans:

1. A loan made to the campaign committee of an elected officer or a candidate for elective office.
2. A loan that would otherwise not be a gift.
3. A loan that would otherwise be a gift but on which the creditor has taken reasonable action to collect the balance due.
4. A loan that would otherwise be a gift but on which the creditor, based on reasonable business considerations, has not undertaken collection action. Except in a criminal action, a creditor who claims that a loan is not a gift on the basis of this paragraph has the burden of proving that the decision for not taking collection action was based on reasonable business considerations.
5. A loan made to a debtor who has filed for bankruptcy and the loan is ultimately discharged in bankruptcy. (Section 87462(b).)
